#daydrinking – highballs for every occasion // chf 35 // 10-18 guests

Over the past few years highballs, (small drinks often with a low alcohol content) have increasingly slipped into obscurity. The Cinchona Bar crew are bringing them back to their former glory, showing you how you can really enjoy the afternoon without spending the evening suffering for it. Given their low alcohol content, it is also possible to mix five simple highballs and to enjoy them all with a clear conscience.

Duration approx. 90 minutes

- What are highballs?
- How are they served?
- What are the spherical ice cubes all about?

highball trip around the cantons – swiss gin and a little tonic // chf 65 // 10-16 guests

A delightful journey through Switzerland's gin landscape. 5 highballs, mixed with gins from a range of different cantons, show off the talents of the country's best distillers. The spirits don't just make for an excellent highball, of course; they also go fantastically with mixers. The Cinchona Bar's experts reveal to us which tonic waters mix best with which gins.

Duration approx. 90 minutes

- What distinguishes the different gins?
- And what about the different tonics?

gin & it // chf 45 // 10-18 guests

Trendy spirits go in and out of fashion; they change, stick around, or can disappear again completely. Over the past few years, gin has been ubiquitous in this part of the world. Gin was even the "it" drink way back in the late 1940s. The "it" didn't just stand for gin being a fashionable drink at the time, but also referred to the connection between gin and vermouth. Our bar team lets you in on their favourite combos, and shows you the hidden variety behind the drinks.

Duration approx. 90 minutes

- 5 gin & it combinations
- So, what does the "it" stand for?

wine tasting & seminar // chf 54 // 6-18 guests

The perfect starter course for amateur sommeliers. Accompanied with some fun memories, of course. ☺ Duration 1-2 hours (as required).

- Introduction to the history of wine
- Explanation of the wine aroma chart
- Instructions for degustation
- Sampling of 5 wines
- Bread and water included
